Remember When . . .

Dedication

To Mrs. Helen A. Stewart, who has had a Christian influence on our lives, who inspired us to search for greater goals in life and whose gentle personality has won the love and admiration of the students and teachers at Lillington High School, we gratefully dedicate this volume of Footprints.

To remember when my young one,
Is to realize the profoundest
Contradiction between that which was
And that which appeared to be;
There were words which were not spoken,
There was weeping without tears;
There was a love that knew not embracing;
There was a belief which existed
Though it knew not a thing to believe in;
There was torment, my friend,
That masked itself as peace,
There was a kind of death
That refused to close its eyes
And continued to breathe.

Principal

As each day comes to a close and tomorrow seems like the best time to do what you didn't have time to do today, you can look back to the days Monday thru Friday that you spent listening to the bells ringing, footsteps running down the hall, and teachers constantly singing, "Hurry or you'll be late." On that last day of that twelfth year, a heavy rain of melancholy will appear and synthetic smiles of happiness will be forced on the faces of those scheduled to depart. A new group with new hopes, goals, and aspirations is born to go and conquer the world with a loyal banner.

The final evaluation of this conquest cannot be measured by yardsticks of knowledge, but rather by accomplishments and achievements of the members of this graduating class of 1972. Let this new experience thrust you into a lifestyle that will contribute to the improvement of our total environment.

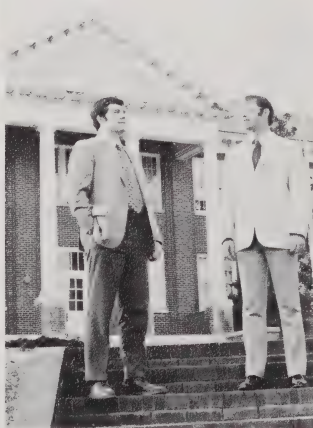

With sincere wishes,

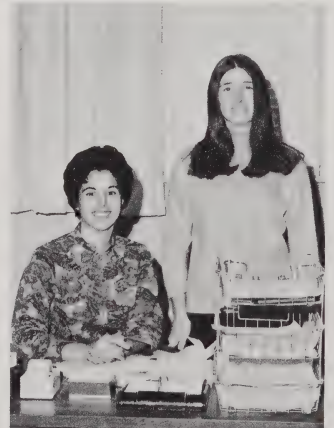

Mr. Larry J. Poore, Principal

SENIORS

The Senior year is full of "lasts":
 The last time the Cavaliers come on the field, and we know they're ours;
 The last time we see our Cavaliers bring the ball up the court;
 The last time our cavaliers swing the bat;
 The last time our Cavaliers run the mile;
 The last time we break in the lunch line;
 The last time we work problems for Mrs. Watkins;
 The last time we gather in Mr. Poore's office;
 The last composition for Miss Stewart;
 The last lecture from Mr. Wilson;
 The last daring bus trip with Susan and Carolyn;
 The last "Green Scene";
 The last and most cherished FOOTPRINTS;
 The last day at school ended by
 The last walk out the doors of LHS.
 An ending but yet a beginning . . .

We smiled and cut-up at practice, but still did some serious work. We sang songs like, "Who's Gonna Water Your Lawn When I'm Gone?" and managed to give our teams a cookout. We felt tense moments during the games and hugged one another after cheering the Cavaliers on to victory. At times tempers flared, but not for long, for we became friends — the kind that never leave one's memory. A quote that describes it all is, "How bad and mad and sad it was, but then how it was sweet." Thank you Varsity Cheerleaders for making the LHS sports season the best one ever.

If, during the game, you learn how to communicate with people, to strive to beat overwhelming odds, to give all you have to a worthwhile goal and never give up, to relate sportsmanship to your fellowman, then you have acquired many important characteristics that make you a better human being and more adapted to take your place in life. Officers of 1971-1972 Boosters Club

This school year of 1971-1972 has held many memories for the students at LHS. Through sports, personal objectives have been obtained and raised, someone clapped their hands and felt enthusiasm for a team striving to defeat the opponent, our coach slapped someone on the back and said, "Well done," and spectators as well as players learned that working together as a team is the winners' motto. All of this and much more was made possible due to the Boosters' Club interest and support. They came to the games and showed more spirit for the teams than anyone. They proved their confidence in the Cavaliers by financial contributions. In short it is because of the Boosters' Club that LHS had their three season sports.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

How do a few students out of a class of 90 Seniors become labeled "outstanding?" The 1972 Senior Class nominated and selected these students on the basis of scholastic achievement, sports participation, and leadership ability in the various extra-curricular activities of the high school. These young men and women can be proud of their efforts, for they have not been in vain.

From the Editor . . .

Another year has passed in the history of L.H.S. As Seniors, we have come to the end of this long, hard road and will make a turn for another one, venturing on into the future and whatever it may hold for us. As you travel on through life, there will be memories of these past twelve years. The 1972 Annual Staff has tried to present to you in a casual, yet sincere way, memories to cherish as you make a new kind of road for yourself.

I would like to thank the members of the '72 Annual Staff who have helped to make this annual possible. Also a thanks to Mrs. Hill for her assistance. A most sincere thanks, from the staff to Mrs. Helen Stewart, for all of the hard work and time she has so freely given to make this annual a success.

As you "Remember When" . . . remember us.

Diane Avrette

I sure hope the road don't come to own me . . .
there's so many dreams I've yet to find.

Haren

Ha' Ha'

I mean ant' hole' you're always been very sweet and hateful to me. Not really I could always depend on you to talk to because alot of our problems are alike. And you would always listen to me wether you likes what I say or not. And when Dan around you I don't try to change myself and try to be something I can not.

slippy down

I can't wait till we go to Texas. Well we better go. I've got to save up $50 between now and then.

I almost think it is impossible.

But it is so funny because I prayed that I could go to Texas and then you called and told me that we might go. Well as Haren Wilber said of there a will there a way. Well I'm glad I know you and I know you will make it in the future.

but nothing is impossible when you have faith

May God Bless you

Christ Name

P.S Well I hope you will make it Mary Cathrine

Kathy,

You're really a stump. Ha! I am too, isn't that right? Kathy you're cute, sweet and a very dependent friend. I guess you will always be my friend, I hope. I can't tell you how much your friendship means. You are always bubbling with energy and always ready to help those needy friends.

Remember those parties and ball games, cake sales, and so many things we have done together. Remember when we went to North Hills and shopped all day. We really had a good time. Remember all the times we sang in Good News. I wish I was still in the group but maybe it's all for the best. I hope you and Fred make it to the altar because I really think that you mean a lot to Fred and I know he means a lot to you. Kathy, remember when I dated Fred. Ha! Ha! See, Kathy you're not the only one who has gotten to date Fred.

Kathy, whatever you do with your life I'm sure it will be worthwhile. I hope you have the best that life can offer because this world just wouldn't be without our little Kathy. I can't wait until Friday night. We are going to get spaced out.

Love a friend always
Yvonne
Morison
(DJ)

Dear Karen,

It really has been a pleasure spending this year with you. You know, it's funny how we hated each other in the 5th and 6th grades and how we have been such great friends this year. I'm glad we're good friends now because I feel closer to you than any other girl. And I think you know that too.

Karen, (it seems funny writing by our name) remember March 18, 1972? We had fun that night, didn't we? I only wish that I had been with Mark Johnson! I had a great time though, and I thank you for inviting me.

I also enjoyed that night at the Baptist Convention in Raleigh. That was a great night! Karen, even if we aren't in the same classes next year I hope we will stay as close together as we have this year. I believe one reason why I got to know you more is because of the Bible classes we had. It was terrible the government doesn't allow "good old religion" in school.

All I can say Karen, is that I hope that you will be blessed by God, in the coming years because if anyone deserves it you do Karen.

Please keep close. And keep that " smile."

Just remember one thing.
"Wear your Glasses".
Ha!

Love you Always!
Karen Wilder very much

Karen,

We have had some great times together haven't we? Remember, when we went swimming in the river. We will have to that again someday. The beach, the game we played, do you remember. I could never forget that.

Karen, you will always be a great friend. I hope we will always be close. I hope you will not ever get tired of coming to my house because I will never get tired of going to yours.

I hope we will be in the same ~~room~~ next.

God Bless you!

Well hi,

I've been carrying this thing around for 2 days and I believe I'll finally write in it (during Chem.)!

This year's been super great!

And I sure hope next year will meet it and pass it with flying colors.

Lookin', I ain't too good at writing in annals (can't spell either) so all I know to say is

GOOD

Luck

(you NEED IT)!

Take care,
of my curf.

Be Good,

Luv,

Jackie

Kathy,

I could just cry to think that another year is coming to a close. The time just goes too fast! Sure we've complained alot this ^{year} about all the work we've had but all the good times can outnumber that any day. We have only had two classes together this ^{year} (Thank goodness!!) English has been fun at times and Algebra; well we both feel the same way about that class. It's sad when I think about how much we planned, worried and worked for the jr. dr. and now it's all over. I still ^{think} our class was great about the whole thing; we all worked together, especially on the decorating.

We haven't done an awful lot together this year now that you and Fred are going steady. We've been just as close as always though and even if I don't ever see you I'm really glad that you and Fred are so happy, especially after everything we went through last year!! Remember!!!

I just can't ^{not} get over the fact that we'll be seniors next year. Just think, we only have one more year left with our great class. Even after we do graduate I know we'll still be close friends. I just wish you all the happiness in the world cos' you really deserve it!

Love, Nancy
